

Expanding Your Outlook on Assessment: How to Construct a Comprehensive Process for Programs & Staff

Assessment is often a scary word when a young professional is unsure of how to accomplish it. This session will provide attendees with a baseline set of tools that will assist in the development and sustainability of programmatic, facility, student, and professional staff assessment. At the end of the session, assessment will cease to be scary and begin to be an exciting piece of advancing the work that you already love to do!
