

Intentional Hiring: Building the Best Team Possible

This session will break down the importance of hiring deliberately and the effects that it has on staff moral and culture. Student staffs are the cornerstone of collegiate recreation and creating these teams is not a process that should be taken lightly. This session is designed for both students to understand the importance of taking part in these processes, new professional staff looking to build their desired staff as well as seasoned professionals who would like to make improvements in existing models.

- Lead Presenter: Al Diaz, University of Oregon
- Co-Presenter: Yadira Soto, University of California, Riverside
- Co-Presenter: Katey Totten, University of Oregon
- Room: San Juan